SAFETY

Safety and handling of the seat walker requires the close attention of the user. This manual points out the most common procedures and techniques involved in the safe operation and maintenance of the seat walker. It is important to practice and master these safe techniques until you are comfortable in manoeuvring around frequently encountered architectural barriers.

Use this information only as a basic guide. The techniques that are discussed below have been used successfully by many. Individual seat walker users often develop skills to deal with daily living activities that may differ from those described here. All warnings and cautions given in this manual MUST be followed.

Techniques in this manual are a starting point for the new seat walker user with safety as the most important consideration for all.

To determine and establish your particular safety limits, practice bending, reaching and sitting in several combinations in the presence of a qualified health professional before attempting active use of the seat walker.

When unfolding your seat walker for use make sure it is fixed safely by pushing down on the folding brackets between the front and rear frame.

Also ensure that the backrest has been pushed back to its locked position.

When assembling your seat walker, make sure that bolts and tightening wheel are secure BEFORE use.

Always check hand grips for looseness before using seat walker. If loose and/or worn, replace immediately.

If seat walker is exposed to extreme temperature (above 38° C or below 0° C), high humidity and/or becomes wet, prior to use, ensure hand grips DO NOT twist on the seat walker handle—otherwise damage or injury may occur.

When seated DO NOT attempt to reach for objects if you have to move forward on the seat or if you have to pick them up from the floor by reaching between your knees. DO NOT reach over the backrest to reach objects behind you as this may cause the seat walker to tip over.

DO NOT use on roads, streets or highways.

DO NOT climb, go up or down an incline or traverse slopes greater than 9 degrees.

DO NOT attempt to go up or down an incline which has a film of water, ice or oil.

Use caution when traversing curbs or obstacles as this may cause the seat walker to tip over and cause bodily harm or damage to the seat walker.

ALWAYS apply brakes before sitting on the seat. DO NOT release brakes until you are in a standing position.

The seat walker is not a wheelchair. People must not be pushed while seated on the walker—otherwise damage or injury may occur and it will also void the warranty.

The tyres and wheels need to be checked periodically for cracks and wear. If problems are indicated, the problem parts should be identified and replaced immediately. Should brakes need adjusting, consult your local supplier or Evocare Australia.
